

A Jambalaya Jubilee Recipe Rally

We are cooking up a grand celebration for the 63rd Annual Convention, July 24 through 27, 2012 in the Big Easy—New Orleans, Louisiana. The formula for good food, fun and friends begins with you as a culinary artist. This is an invitation to submit a tried and true family or favorite recipe, be it an appetizer, bread, soup, main dish, dessert or beverage, that you are willing to share with the membership. Ours is an international feast; we seek American dishes, whether north, east, south or west, or from our neighbors in Canada and Mexico. Those with continental flavor and flair from Europe are essential as are delicacies that have an Asian influence, African cuisine, your best from the barbie or galley in Australia and, of course, South American fare, too.

Who doesn't enjoy exchanging a delectable recipe? We'll give you 63 or more in return for yours. Kindly complete the entire form, one per recipe, sign and send to Lori Santamaura, Editor, Souvenir Journal 2012. All submissions should be received by January 15, 2012. Sixty-three entries will be featured in the souvenir journal in honor of our 63rd year of festivities, and all recipes will be made available either via supplement or at www.ufdc.org. Please go straight for your recipe box and join the jubilee!
