

UFDC REGION 6 SPRING 2012 NEWSLETTER

Hi everyone, Hope you are all having a nice and mild winter. Maybe you are using the bad weather to get all your projects done...it's a great time for sewing! My friends and I made muffs from antique fur the other day...so easy and fun, even for those of us who lack the sewing gene entirely! I would really like to clean out my closet of all my unfinished projects, so I have great hopes! Wish me luck...

At his point I am about a year and a half into my term as RD. My goal is to visit as many of the clubs as I can before I finish my term. I would definitely like to get up to Montana later this year. In the meantime, I would like to ask all of you to consider serving as RD when my term is finished. It is a wonderful opportunity to meet your fellow collectors and serve UFDC as well, and I promise, the job is not hard. Regional Directors are members of the Board of UFDC and thereby have input into decision making for the group. Please think about it...I am available to talk with any of you about the demands of the job, the rewards, time commitments and the like.

NEW MALS: Welcome to our new MALS: We are so glad to have you!!!!

LIBRARY MEMBERSHIPS: In my prior newsletters I asked you to consider donating a library membership. Two clubs have come forward since the last newsletter, so we currently have 4 library memberships in total. Please think about it as a donation effort in your clubs..it's only $45 and might help to encourage new membership from people who learn about us at the library.

The final banquet will feature a special souvenir delicacy presented by The Vogue Doll Company and designer Alice Leverett. 2. UFDC Fundraiser in New Orleans

If you were there and weren't afraid to be square at the Motown Music Gathering in Detroit in 2007, you know we had a rocking good time. If you skipped the beat and missed this treat, here is another chance to meet. Join us in New Orleans at the Razy Snazzy Raging Cajun Jamboree! You are invited to join in the fun and entertain fellow UFDC members. Interested individuals and groups may pre-register their "act" by contacting Kate Reed 201 Wood St. Warren, PA 16365. UFDC Auction: UFDC ON EBAY

The UFDC is in the second quarter of selling donated items on eBay as a means of providing support for the organization. The first quarter got off to a good start. The Fundraising Committee would like to grow this method of supporting the UFDC. It's practically painless as almost all of us have an extra doll, doll related item, or other item worthy of donation. Please talk about it at your doll clubs. If your club or individual members are willing to donate, go to ufdc.org. Scroll down under the "Home" tab and click on UFDC-eBay. Scroll down past the item for sale and click on the blue "on-line auction donation form" line. Print the form and donate. Regions designated for donating this quarter are Regions 6, 9, 10, & 13. Your contributions would be much appreciated and will help keep our hobby strong. Thanks for your help with this fundraising project.

China Doll Club of Fort Collins

I had the pleasure of attending the China Doll Club of Fort Collins' Valentine luncheon this month and it was wonderful. Thank you all for the wonderful hospitality...you are a warm and interesting bunch of ladies! Natalie Kovacs did a program on Hallmark Doll Cards (a new and novel topic other clubs might want to use) . Natalie had received the cards from her grandfather when she was a child, and she actually played with them (see her darling picture below), so they bring back lovely memories which she shared at the meeting. The Fort Collins Club is active and growing and the members very enthusiastic. Thanks again for the lovely visit!

Betsy McCall

visits her grandmother

Grandma McCall had an Easter-egg hunt on her lawn, for Betsy, her cousin Sandy, her little cousin Linda, and their friends. The eggs were in the funniest places! One was on a porch chair that Betsy almost sat in. One was in the birdhouse in the apple tree, and some were in the garden—where you'd think anyone would see them, and yet didn't. Betsy found eight eggs—pink, yellow, blue—but poor little Linda found none, and she looked as though she were going to cry, until Betsy had a fine idea: "These eggs are for the two of us. I'm older and can look faster, and anyway, I had all the fun of finding them." . . . Grandma made them such a good lunch. It was fried-chicken-in-a-basket. And for dessert, they had Grandma McCall's Butter-Crunch Cookies, as many as they could eat. "Dear me, I didn't know how many that would be," said Grandma, holding up the empty cookie jar. "Tomorrow, Betsy, would you like to bake a batch of fresh Butter-Crunch Cookies?" . . . "Oh, could I?" cried Betsy. . . . The next morning, Grandma showed her how. It was easy. Betsy made just loads of them in different shapes. They smelled so good she could hardly wait for them to cool. When they did, she filled a plate for Sandy and Linda and herself to munch with their milk. And were they ever good!

This is Betsy McCall. Her nylon slip, about $2, comes in yellow, white, pink
